Subject: Nomination for the 2026 Master of Audit Program in Nanjing Audit University

Dear colleague,

On behalf of the National Audit Office of China (CNAO), I am pleased to inform you CNAO will continue entrusting Nanjing Audit University (NAU) with the Master of Audit (MAud) Program in 2026, which is open to eligible candidates from Supreme Audit Institutions (SAIs) in developing countries. I am writing to invite your nomination for the 2026 MAud Program.

As a member of INTOSAI, CNAO champions the motto Mutual Experience Benefits All in its collaboration with other SAIs. With the support of CNAO, NAU launched in 2016 the MAud Program for auditors from SAIs by sharing with them successful methodology and technology in China, in an effort to build capacity and improve professionalism of fellow SAIs. We aim to design and implement the Program with high standards to ensure high quality. Up to now, 283 students have graduated from the Program, which received high recognition from the international audit community.

The MAud Program will be a two-year program, and all courses will be offered in English. The curriculum of the Program will consist of general courses, core professional courses, selective courses, and field studies. In the Program, students will engage in classroom training, discussions and case studies, and participate in international seminars. Apart from lecturers from NAU, senior auditors from CNAO will also deliver lectures to the students. Moreover, the students will have the opportunity to visit audit institutions at various levels in China.

If you are interested in the 2026 MAud Program, please refer to the Enrollment Information attached to this letter. We genuinely welcome the nomination of FOUR candidates from your SAI to the Program. The nominees are required to complete an online application. Successful applicant will receive scholarship to cover relevant expenses of studying in China. More information can be found in the Enrollment Information.

I take this opportunity to wish you, your colleagues and your loved ones a very successful year 2026. I look forward to your nomination.

Yours sincerely,

侯. 凯

6. An annual review will be conducted for each student, and those who pass the annual review can continue their studies with the support of the scholarship.

7. The remaining part of the scholarship will be utilized by CSC or Nanjing Audit University according to an overall plan and will not be distributed to students. CSC only sponsors the students who graduate within the program duration. The students who have to postpone their studies due to various reasons will not be further funded.

ii. About Nanjing Audit University

◆ Overall Introduction

Nanjing Audit University (NAU) is the only full-time undergraduate institute at home and abroad that carries "Audit" in its name, and is one of the birthplaces of audit higher education in China. It has been established, developed, flourished and elevated for audit. NAU was initially founded in 1983, and became a university jointly built by the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Finance, the National Audit Office and the People's Government of Jiangsu Province in 2011, and became a master's degree granting unit in 2013, and was approved by the Ministry of Education to change its name to the current name in 2015, and in 2021 the university was approved to be a doctoral-granting unit and in 2022 it was selected as a university under the Jiangsu High Level University Construction Summit Plan. On July 4, 2023, President Xi Jinping replied to the international students of the Master of Audit Program, encouraging them to strengthen communication and mutual learning with their Chinese counterparts, to learn more about and understand China through the platform of auditing, and to actively contribute to deepening friendship and cooperation between countries.

NAU's current full-time undergraduates, postgraduates and international students total more than 19,000. It has a full-time teaching faculty of more than 1,200, amongst whom more than 200 with senior professional titles, more than 800 with doctoral degrees. Today's NAU consists of two campuses in Pukou and Mochou respectively, covering a total area of 1.2 million square meters.

NAU has built a system of disciplines and specialties with auditing as the brand and the disciplines of economics, management, law, engineering, literature and science supporting each other and developing in a synergistic way. The university has one post-doctorate station, two first-level doctoral degree program, eight first-level master's degree programs, and 17 master's degree programs. There are three advantageous disciplines in Jiangsu universities and six key disciplines in Jiangsu Province.

NAU has 20 academies, and six special research institutes; it has implemented the "dual system" education model of academies and colleges. NAU has 44 undergraduate majors, including 18 national first-class undergraduate majors, 11 provincial first-class majors, three special majors of the Ministry of Education, two "Comprehensive Reform Pilot Projects" of the Ministry of Education, five "Twelfth Five-Year Plan" key majors of Jiangsu Province, nine brand majors and six special majors of Jiangsu Province. There are 14 national first-class undergraduate courses, one national level ideological and political demonstration course, and one national level virtual teaching and research team. The university has one national teaching team, eight national teaching teachers of curriculum thinking and politics, one national ideological and political education teaching team, six excellent teaching teams of “Youth and Blue Project” in Jiangsu Province.

With the support from the National Audit Office of China, the Ministry of Commerce of China and the Ministry of Education of China, NAU has implemented the Master of Audit Program since 2016. It enrolls and cultivates student of master’s degree in auditing from countries along the “the Belt and Road”, and has passed the accreditation of overseas student education by the Ministry of Education. It has been certified by IIA as the only IAEP partner-level university in China, and has been engaged in student exchange, faculty recruitment, mutual recognition of credits, and scientific research cooperation with global partner universities. It has been accredited by ACCA as the "University that Has Trained Most ACCA Talents" and “Platinum Level Training Institution”; it has also cooperated with many world-renowned institutions in the UK, the USA, Russia, France, Australia, Korea, Italy, South Africa, Kazakhstan and so on; it has cooperated with SKEMA Business School in France to establish an international joint audit school and established a cooperative education program in accounting with Curtin University in Australia. The university has been approved as a base construction unit for “High-level International Talent Training Innovative Practice Project” of the Ministry of Education, “International Reserve Talent Program” and “Country and Regional Studies Talent Support Program” of China Scholarship Council, as well as “New Youth Global Competence Program” of China Education Association for International Exchange. The university has collaborated with the Center for Cultural Exchange between China and Foreign Countries of the Ministry of Education to establish the “Institute for Audit Cultural Exchange between China and Foreign Countries”. It is selected for the “Jiangsu UK High Level University Alliance”, “Jiangsu Canada University Cooperation Alliance”, “Jiangsu Korea University Cooperation Alliance”, “Jiangsu France Higher Education Cooperation Alliance”, and “China Africa University Alliance”. The number of UN audit assignments completed by NAU faculty amounted to 109, and 15 faculty members were selected for the UN audit talent pool; We have established extensive cooperation with international organizations such as INTOSAI, ASOSAI, United Nations Board of Auditors, United Nations Office of Internal Oversight Services, Food and Agricultural Organization of the United Nations, United Nations Institute for Training and Research, World Bank, New Development Bank of BRICS, International Anti-Corruption Academy, the Institute of Internal Auditors, Association of Chartered Certified Accountants, International Federation of Accountants, etc. Richard F. Chambers, the former President and CEO of IIA, and Francis Gurry, the former Director General of the World Intellectual Property Organization, were appointed as the overseas dean. Auditor-Generals from 34 countries and regions such as the United States, France, Brazil, India, South Africa and others, have been appointed as honorary professors of NAU. NAU has organized more than 80 important international conferences, seminars, forums, etc.

◆ About the Program Implementing Unit

School of International Students (SIS)

The School of International Students (SIS) of NAU caters to the international students and aims to promote the cross-cultural exchange among Chinese and foreign students, cultivating international talents who are familiar with Chinese culture and committed to the common development of countries around the world. Up to now, a total of 420 international students from 78 countries have come the university to further their studies in auditing, and 283 of them have successfully completed their master program and become the backbone in the auditing area and the friendly ambassadors for auditing exchanges between China and their home countries.

SIS is responsible for recruiting qualified candidates at all levels for the Chinese Government Scholarship, specialized scholarships sponsored by different Chinese ministries, Jiangsu Provincial Scholarship, Nanjing Municipal Scholarship, and Nanjing Audit University International Students Scholarship. With the focus on the brand-major of auditing, the scholarships are available for both undergraduates and postgraduates in 15 different majors, such as auditing, accounting, economics, international trade, etc. SIS is in charge of the strategic planning of international students' affairs of NAU, the students' enrollment issues and daily administration. It has two offices, namely the Office of General Affairs (OGA) and the Management Office of International Students (MOIS), and has eight international student education practice bases.

SIS selects and hires 56 outstanding faculty members as supervisors for the international students of the Master of Audit Program throughout the university. 39 of them are professors while the remaining 17 are associate professors.

◆ About the Living Environment and Accommodation Conditions

Nanjing, known as Jinling in ancient times, is the capital of Jiangsu Province. It is a sub-provincial city, a mega-city, the core city of Nanjing metropolitan area. It is also an important central city in the eastern region of China, an important national scientific research and education base and a comprehensive transportation hub as determined by the State Council. Nanjing is located in the eastern part of China, downstream of the Yangtze River, near the river and the sea, and is an important gateway city of the Yangtze River Delta radiating and driving the development of the central and western regions, as well as an important node city of the strategic intersection of the eastern coastal economic belt and the Yangtze River economic belt, as planned by the State Council.

Nanjing is a hilly area, dominated by low hills and gentle hills, with a humid north subtropical climate and a water area of more than 11%. It is one of the first national historical and cultural cities, an important birthplace of Chinese civilization, and has long been the political, economic and cultural center of southern China. Nanjing has a humid climate with four distinct seasons and a moderate price level, the annual average temperature is 15.4 °C. It is a suitable place to live in.

Nanjing Audit University provides an apartment for every two students of Master of Audit Program on Pukou Campus. Each apartment is equipped with a refrigerator, a washing machine, a washroom, shower facilities, wireless network access, etc. Every student will have a separate bedroom of his or her own equipped with an air-conditioner. A shared kitchenette is available in each apartment. Apart from dormitories and canteens, there are sports playgrounds, clinic, post office, convenience stores, hair salon, laundry shop, printing shops, etc. There are public buses and taxis available right outside of the school gate, and it takes less than 10 minutes' bus ride to the center of the local downtown. There are banks, supermarkets, restaurants, hospitals and city metros available in the district community.

◆ Degree Thesis

Degree thesis should be closely linked with government auditing practice and reflect students' competency in applying audit and related discipline theory, knowledge and methodology to analyze and solve practical problem. It can be written in the form of an academic research report, a policy research report, a monographic study, or a case analysis. Whatever the form of the thesis, it should reflect the students' capability in applying basic theories and professional knowledge to solve practical issues.

Both Chinese and English languages are all accepted in writing the thesis, while the abstract is required to be written in Chinese.

International students without special cases are required to stay in China in the 4th semester to complete their thesis writing as well as the internship. In case of materials and data needed from home countries for the thesis writing, this should be done during the summer or winter vacation.

The Thesis defense must be taken in Nanjing Audit University upon gaining all the required credits. The form of thesis defense is to be decided by the related cultivating departments. The Thesis Defense Committee would include some experts with professional posts in the audit practice field. Three credits will be granted to a successful defense.

◆ Degree Conferring

According to Nanjing Audit University Master of Audit Program Education Plan, the students are required to: finish all the required courses and gain the required credits, write a degree thesis in topics related to audit and pass the thesis defense, and pass the International Chinese Proficiency Test (HSK Level 3).

Having attained all the credits, passed the thesis defense, and met the requirements listed in the Regulations on Academic Degrees of the People's Republic of China, candidates need to file an application for the degree. Candidates are to be conferred the Master of Audit at the approval of the University's Academic Degree Evaluation Committee.

Note: This is a Standard Form for foreign visitors to apply Chinese visa and other related issues, please do not make any change or use other non-standard forms. The result of the examination will expire in six months. The expenses incurred from the physical examination shall be covered by yourself.

Q6: What should I do if my passport is going to expire within a short period?

A6: It is recommended that passports used for applying the Program shall not expire in the next two years. DO NOT apply with the passports that will be shortly-expired, in such case, ONLY apply when you have the new passport at hand. If you are almost meeting the deadline for application, please write your passport number as “00000000”, we will notice the abnormal number and wait for your renewed passport number.

Q7: What kind of passport should I use for application?

A7: Please use the ordinary passport for application. If you are using other passports, you will meet difficulties in the process of getting the JW201 Form(a required document for studying in China). Please do not try to ask if other passports are acceptable, because the answer is definitely “NO”. Any negative consequences resulting from using the wrong type of passport shall receive no cooperation from the university in the visa application process.

Q8: When is the deadline?

A8: The recommended deadline is June 6 each year, but if in any case, you could not meet the deadline, write an email to cscmaud@nau.edu.cn, and there is still a chance to get admitted. Make sure you are allowing enough time for the university to verify the documents you submit.

Q9: What are the requirements of the recommendation letters?

A9: It is required that each applicant need two recommendation letters. The academic recommendation letter is usually written by a professor from a university or a high-level professional in a related field. The other recommendation letter should be signed by the Auditor General (AG) of the Supreme Audit Institutions (SAIs) of your country. Please note that electronic signatures is not acceptable.
